Ravi is the Head of Audit & Advisory and a member of Executive Committee of LTC LLP. He is a Fellow practicing member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Singapore, a Fellow Chartered Accountant with the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales and a Fellow Certified Public Accountant of Australia. He holds a Specialized Honours degree (member of Dean's Honour Roll) in Business Administration from Schulich School of Business at York University, in Toronto, Canada.

Ravi has led major audit engagements such as the statutory audit of a listed entity in NYSE, government projects and other listed companies in Singapore. He has headed a number of cross border assignments and advises on a variety of financial matters such as rights issues, corporate funding matters, acquisitions, due diligence, business plans, valuations, etc. He started his career in auditing/finance in 1986.

Ravi was formerly from Singapore Telecommunications Ltd (SingTel) where he was the Director of International Finance. His responsibilities included the financial evaluation and capital restructuring of SingTel's overseas investments. He headed the finance team in the reviews of investment opportunities in the region and financial due diligences. He has also participated in EVA implementation and VBM studies in SingTel.

Prior to joining SingTel, he worked as an Audit Manager with Deloitte & Touche, Singapore and has extensive experience in audits, due diligence reviews, initial public offering and litigation support. Prior to that he trained as a chartered accountant in London.

He is a member of the Financial Statements Review Committee and a trainer with the Public Practice Programme. He is also a member of the Complaints and Disciplinary Panel.
