Abu is a member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Singapore (ICPAS) and an Approved Liquidator with the Accounting & Corporate Regulatory Authority.

Abu specializes in corporate recovery & restructuring, and litigation consulting services.

Before joining the firm, he had spent more than 15 years of his professional career with Ernst & Young, Arthur Andersen and Deloitte & Touche. Abu has handled numerous large and complicated insolvency engagements, and is well-known amongst the insolvency practitioners for his administration of the collapse of large construction companies in Singapore, Malaysia and Indonesia.

For litigation consulting, Abu works with lawyers in the areas of dispute analysis and resolution, professional negligence, fraud and misconduct, forensic accounting and damage quantification. He also attends Court hearings to provide expert witness testimony.
